FAQ on submitting an Absolute Assignment request

FAQ

1. What is an Absolute Assignment?

Assignment of a life insurance policy means transfer of rights from one person to another. You can transfer the rights on your life insurance policy to another person/entity for various reasons. This process is referred to as assignment and is governed under Policies of Assurance Act (Chapter 392). The person who assigns the insurance policy (i.e. the Policy Owner) is called the Assignor and the one to whom the policy has been assigned, i.e. the person to whom the policy rights have been transferred is called the Assignee.

2. Who can assign the policy?

Only the Policy Owner of the life insurance policy can assign the policy. The Policy Owner must have attained at least 18 years of age to be an assignor. The assignee must also have attained at least 18 years of age.

3. Who can I assign my policy to?

You can transfer the rights on your life insurance policy to another individual or an entity.
